CONCLUSION:-

we are students of III BSc have done project work on chromatography. During this project work we have collected a lot of information about chromatography, various types of Chromatography, Experimental procedure of paper Chromatography, TLC, gas & liquid chromatography. We also collected information about applications of Chromatography techniques and uses of that techniques in various field.

finally we thank our resource person and guide Sri. M. Sudhakar Garu, Head of the department chemistry for supporting us & guided for his valuable guidance and we also thank our other Chemistry lecturers.
