Brief Report on Literary Mélange (Sahitya Rupakam)

Organized by the Women Empowerment Cell
Sri A.S.N.M. Government College (A), Palakol
Date: 06-03-2025

The Women Empowerment Cell of Sri A.S.N.M. Government College (Autonomous), Palakol, successfully organized an inspiring literary event titled "Literary Mélange (Sahitya Rupakam)" on 6th March 2025. This unique program focused on the portrayal of iconic female protagonists from celebrated Telugu novels authored by renowned Telugu women novelists. The event aimed to highlight the strength, resilience, and evolving identity of women in literature, as envisioned and articulated by female literary voices in the Telugu literary tradition.

The session commenced with opening remarks by Dr. T. Raja Rajeswari, who applauded the invaluable contribution of Telugu women novelists to the feminist movement in literature. She emphasized how these literary works have empowered generations of readers by presenting women as central, complex, and dynamic characters.

The event was graced by the esteemed Resource Person, Dr. V. Naga RajyaLakshmi, Retired Principal from Chebrolu, Guntur District, who, along with her team—Dr. V. Satyavathi, Dr. M. LalithaKumari, Dr. T. VeeraLakshmi, and Smt. P. SanthiNirmala—delved deep into the literary, cultural, and feminist dimensions of the featured characters. Their insightful presentations brought alive the powerful stories and social impact of these protagonists, highlighting the evolving representation of women in Telugu fiction.

Faculty members and students actively participated in the event, engaging with the presentations, discussions, and dramatic portrayals. Their enthusiastic involvement made the program a lively and thought-provoking experience, reaffirming the importance of literature as a tool for empowerment and change.

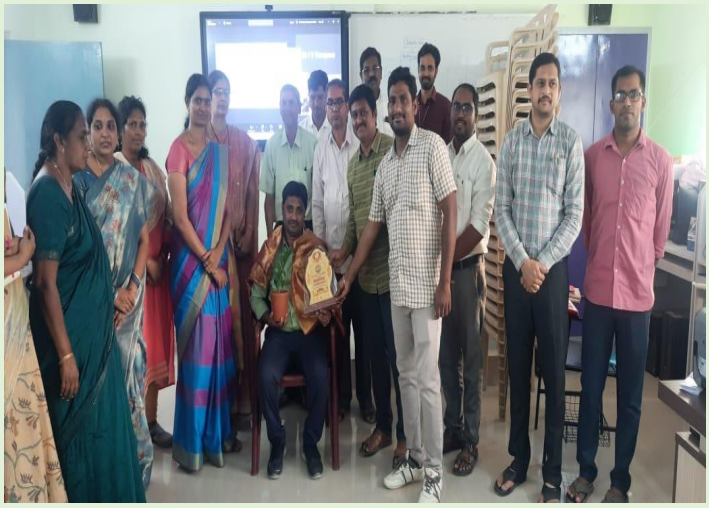

The event concluded with a note of appreciation to all contributors, especially the organizing committee and student volunteers, for their dedication in making this celebration of literary womanhood a resounding success.
